

Chapter 7
Employee Discipline

Section 9 Off-duty conduct: In most instances, the County will not be involved in employees' off duty conduct. The County will take appropriate action if the targeted off-duty conduct interferes or compromises the employee's ability to perform on the job, or that such conduct affects public confidence in the County's ability to perform its mission.